OUR NEW CHURCH.

To look at me I'm rather plain,
And that is why I now explain
To all who stand outside and gaze
Upon my form devoid of praise.
The beauty that grows cold and dies
Was not intended for your eyes,
But that which lives and ever serves
Lies just within my wall reserves.
"Step in! step in!" my welcome goes
And you won't feel the chill of snows.

HISTORY OF THE BECKLEY CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

A number of years before the Church was organized, Joseph Hanna and family and others were honored citizens and faithful members of the Church. Chester Bullard, Samuel Austin and other preachers stopped in passing and preached the primitive Gospel.

No regular work was done until 1892 when W. G. Ogden began to give one-fourth time to the work at Raleigh Court House, as Beckley was then called. During a protracted meeting under the leadership of R. G. White, state evangelist the Church was organized August 14th, 1893, with the following forty-four charter members, who lived in and around Raleigh Court House: David Robertson, deceased; Elizabeth Robertson, A. W. Warden, deceased; Sallie Warden, Wm. H. Cottle, deceased; Lidia Cottle, W. T. Shumate, Maggie Shumate, deceased; T. K. Scott, Jennie Scott, Robert T. Willis, Mrs. R. T. Willis, Wm. P. Willis, Eliza Willis, Julia Bramer, Anna Jones, Allie Hull, Wm. H. Powell, deceased; Mattie Powell, Jesse Evans, deceased; Nancy M. Evans, deceased; J. W. Snuffer, Mrs. J. W. Snuffer, deceased; W. H. Blankenship, Amanda Cozart, deceased; L. Bell Philips, Jane B. Beckley, deceased; Anna Williams, Jennie Williams, Bell A. Ball, Jonathan Hawley, Kansas Hawley, Catherine M. Robertson, Bessie Robertson, Mary Maynor, Mattie A. Blankenship, Maud M. Blankenship, Mrs. M. A. Mellon, John Underwood, Wm. P. Robertson, W. A. Smith, John P. Blankenship, and Robert Robertson.

The first board of officers was composed of David Robertson, W. T. Shumate, T. K. Scott, R. T. Willis, Wm. P. Willis and Wm. H. Powell.

As a large number of these members lived from one to three miles from Beckley, the work progressed slowly for a time. They met every Lord's Day to break bread. Sometimes in private homes, in the Odd Fellow's Hall, in the M. E. Church and in the Baptist Church. G. W. Ogden continued to preach for them till 1900, when he prevailed upon them to begin to build a church of their own which was completed in 1901. In 1902 C. E. Elmore was employed as minister. During his term of service W. H. Book held a meeting with twenty-eight additions. Brother —. — Spear preached for the congregation in 1903 and did a good work. Brother —. — Wodward held a meeting with a number of additions. In 1904 G. W. Pyles was employed, and during his ministry W. H. Buchanan held a meeting which resulted in one hundred additions to the church. In 1906 Ritchie Ware was employed, and served the Church acceptably till 1908. It was during his term of service that Beckley Institute, an efficient mountain school was established by the Christian Woman's Board of Missions. Beckley having grown in a few years from a population of three hundred to about two thousand, it became necessary to enlarge the Church during Brother Ware's ministry. The Church was without a minister for a time, in which time W. H. Gamboe held a very successful meeting with a number of additions to the church. In 1909 J. A. Beaton was employed and served the church acceptably. In 1912-1913, Prof. E. W. McDiarmid and G. W. Ogden, while teaching in Beckley Institute, jointly ministered to the church. During this time the Church saw the need of a more central location, and purchased a lot near the Court House for $3,100.00. In the latter part of the year 1913 Prof. F. F. Crim was employed and served the Church acceptably for one year. After this the Church was without a minister for a time, in which time Prof. W. R. Howell and others supplied. In July, 1916, C. E. Rostofer, just two years out of Bethany College, took hold of the work which was in a lethargic condition. With his consecrated energy the Bible School work began to move. In a short time the enrollment was increased from 200 to 500. The Church was aroused and took on new life in every department of its work. Where there is life there is Growth, and soon the old one room building was incapacitated by the crowds. This condition demanded a larger and better house for efficient teaching of the Bible. Ground was broken in May, 1917 for the new stone structure which to-day stands as a monumental work to the cause of Christ and His Church.

May our efforts not cease until the Heavenly Father can say:

"Thy work is well done;
Thy race is well run;
Thy crown well won."

THE OLD CHURCH

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!

Let each new temple, more noble than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"

NOW, LET US SMILE.
